GEORGES CANYON LEASE IS PAYING ALL EXPENSES

ONE OF THE OWNERS IN MYLES-
MYERS LEASE PRAISES
DISTRICT

Jack Myles, of the Myles and Myers lease at Georges Canyon, came in from that district Sunday. He states that the canyon is bound to be one of the best camps in the state and at the rate development work is being done, startling discoveries should result in a very short space of time.

On the property in which he is interested, Mr. Myles said that at the present the lease is more than paying expenses. This is considered quite remarkable owing to the short length of time it has been worked. A second shipment of about a half ton of ore will arrive here some time this week and be forwarded to the mill without delay.

Mr. Myles will probably remain in Tonopah for the winter, and his associates will continue the work on the property.

NOT A DULL LINE THROUGHOUT COMING PLAY

"THE GIRL FROM RECTOR'S" WILL PLAY HERE ON THURSDAY EVENING

Following its run of an entire season at Weber's Music Hall, New York, "The Girl from Rector's" will be seen in this city, at the New Nevada theatre for a limited engagement of one night only, next Thursday. Paul M. Potter is the author of the work, and despite the fact that his past has been identified with plays of a serious nature, he hit upon a vein of humor in "The Girl," which astonished even his most ardent admirers. It is a long step from a play of the nature of "Tribby," of which he was the author, to an offering like that of his latest creation. The New York critics declare that he has made a name for himself in the world of comedy which will survive his former reputation. There isn't a dull line in "The Girl from Rector's" and not a situation that cannot be understood and appreciated by anyone. The success of the piece may be judged from the fact that its earning capacity at Weber's was many times greater than that of the same house when the Weber & Fields' offerings there were the sole topic of New York's theater going public. Seats in advance at the Miners' drug store.

KETCHEL AND JOHNSON FIGHT IS POSTPONED

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The Ketchel-Johnson fight, which was scheduled to take place October 12, was postponed tonight until October 16 at the urgent request of Promoter James Coffroth. The promoter declared he believed it better to change the date for business reasons, Saturday being a better day than Tuesday to draw a crowd. All the conditions governing the match remain unchanged.

WHY THEY ADJOURNED

A slight earthquake visited many cities of the gulf states some years ago. The shaking of the earth was distinctly felt all over one state, but especially in the state capitol. The legislature was in session at the time, and nearly every member thereof ran out of the building when the structure began to vibrate a disposition to turn itself over. Of course there was then an end to legislative proceedings for that day. When the body had reconvened it was found that some member of a grimly humorous turn had made an entry on the journal of the legislature in these words: "On motion of the house the legislature adjourned."

TAFT WELCOMED TO CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES, MAN
ACCUSED OF MURDER

(By Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—Willis Earnsting, 35 years old, was arrested today charged with the murder of William Salters on the night of August 14, and it is alleged by the officers who made the arrest that he has confessed. Robbery is given as the motive.

Salters was 74 years old, and came to this city from Tacoma. He was considered wealthy, and lived alone. His dead body was found in an alley late at night. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death. Deputy District Attorney McCormack was dissatisfied with this verdict, and the arrest of Earnsting today is the result of the investigation.

TEN BALLOONS HAVE ENTERED IN AERIAL RACE

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 4.—With atmospheric conditions ideal, ten balloons sailed from St. Louis this afternoon towards the southeast. Two balloons, the Peoria and Missouri, each of which has a gas bag with a capacity of 40,000 cubic feet, are in a special race. The others have a capacity of over 8000 cubic feet and are racing for medals and prizes. The smaller balloons are expected to remain in the air for 18 hours, the others for 40 hours.

HAS FAITH IN FRIENDSHIP OF THE JAPANESE

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—Hon. Thomas J. O'Brien, the American ambassador to Japan, who has been on a three months' vacation, and will sail tomorrow on the transport Thomas to resume his duties, was banquetted by the Merchants' association of this city tonight. The ambassador reiterated his faith in the friendship of Japan for this country and his expression was reciprocated by Japanese Consul General Nagai.

Beekman Winthrop, assistant secretary of the navy, was also a guest. He devoted his remarks to the ship subsidy as it affects the navy. He said the navy department was anxious to expand the merchant marine in every possible way, as the navy had to depend upon the speed and number of ships in the merchant marine in time of war, as emergency coal shipments are necessary, as the movements of the Atlantic fleet have demonstrated. The navy department is throwing all the business it can to American ships, he declared.

Enjoyed the Day on the Train En Route From Portland to San Francisco.

Says that Evils Have Been Growing out of Prosperity, Caused by the Undue
Use of Wealth.

(By Associated Press.)

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 4.—After making one of the longest jumps on his trip, traveling for 25 hours through Oregon and northern California, the president arrived tonight at 7 o'clock, to remain until 4 tomorrow morning, when he will proceed to Oakland and San Francisco. During his visit here Taft was entertained at dinner, taken autoing through the city, and made an address at the state capitol grounds. The principal topic of his address was conservation of the natural resources.

The president thoroughly enjoyed the day on the train. He read a little, lounged about the car, and played a friendly game of bridge with members of the party. During the five or six hours that Mount Shasta was in sight he admired that towering peak in all the changing aspects that the winding railroad brought into view. Shasta is the first snow covered mountain the president had seen on the trip, the mountains of Colorado and Washington being hidden by clouds on the days he visited those states.

After spending tomorrow in San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley, the president heads for the Yosemite Valley and is looking forward to that feature of the trip with the greatest of pleasure. The president was welcomed to California at Red Bluff by Governor Gillett, Lieutenant Governor Porter, Senator Perkins, former Secretary of the Navy Victor Metcalf, M. H. De Young of San Francisco, and other members of the committee, who had gathered from different sections of the state. Members of the San Francisco committee represented both the graft prosecution supporters and the anti-graft prosecution faction.

Speaking from the end of his car at Dunsmuir, the president said that everywhere he travels in the west he finds unmistakable evidences of prosperity and that if the signs do not fall the country is upon the eve of an era of business prosperity and expansion never before seen in the United States. "Now with that," said the president, "I would not have you forget that there are certain responsibilities. We have had evils growing out of our prosperity. Men have seized power by means of the accumulation of wealth and its use in methods that are not legal and cannot be approved, by means of monopoly and otherwise. Now we are attempting by means of general laws of the United States and otherwise, to suppress that kind of abuse."

"These abuses were brought to the attention of the people in the marvelous crusade of my predecessor, Theodore Roosevelt, and it is my duty to continue these policies and enforce them as far as I may, and to have put upon the statute books those laws which shall clinch the progress which was made under him, which he preached, and which we all look forward to as a permanent condition. But the difficulty is that whenever everybody is prosperous and everybody is comfortable, then is the time our old friend Satan steps in and helps along the evil cause. These are the times when the people must look to the enforcement of the law."

"You should select your representatives carefully and have them know that you are watching them in congress, and see that they follow the line of enforcement. Of course we want prosperity, but we wish prosperity in such a way that there shall be equality of opportunity among individuals so that everybody will get his share, and that it shall not be confined to the few."

THIRTY-FIVE RACE TRACK GAMBLERS ARE INDICTED

Increase in Oral Betting Causes Authorities in
New York to Get Busy—Mutt
Has no Chance Now.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—After two years of agitation against race track gambling in this state, marked by the passage of the Hart-Agnew law, it remained for the Kings county grand jury to write a new chapter in the crusade today when it returned indictments against two of the big kings of the county race tracks, and three police officers, five private detectives and 25 bookmakers. The Brighton Beach Racing association was similarly involved last year but the case failed as the action heretofore was mainly against bookmakers and betters as defendants, in which proceedings they have generally been exonerated by the lower courts, which held that oral betting was no crime. It was the increase of "oral betting" as conducted by "memory brokers" that resulted in this latest evidence being placed before the governor, who continued the activity which resulted in indictments against the Brooklyn Jockey club and the Coney Island Jockey club, which were charged as corporations in conspiracy to allow betting to go on.

of product transportation, and in this prevent that equality of distribution which we would all like to see. It is the question of the enforcement of the law. I think Roosevelt's course is impressed upon the business community, and those gentlemen who were prone to take advantage of the means of monopoly, of necessity are observing a higher standard in business, and that they are willing to lay down those other methods."

The crowd which greeted the president at the capitol tonight was so big and noisy that he attempted to speak only for a few minutes. Taft tried several times to secure quiet. He appealed on the ground of sore throat and hoarseness, but it was of no avail and after speaking briefly on the subject of conservation, and arousing cheers by the mention of Roosevelt's name, the president asked to be excused. He had no censure for the crowd, only sympathy, he declared.

In the library of the capitol building, before he attempted to speak out of doors, the president was made an honorary member of the Sacramento Society of California Pioneers. This society is limited to those who came to California in 1849. Out of the original membership of 700 there are now only seven left. Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt precede Taft as honorary members.

(By Associated Press.)

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 4.—Using their train of pack burros loaded with contraband goods, a gang of smugglers battled with a squad of rurales near Sabinas, in the state of Coahuila, Mexico, and came out victorious, forcing the rurales to withdraw, and escaping with the goods into the mountains. One smuggler was killed and several rurales were wounded.

COOK WILL ADHERE TO HIS ORIGINAL PLAN

(By Associated Press.)

BALTIMORE, Oct. 4.—Before his lecture tonight Dr. Cook was shown an Associated Press dispatch from Copenhagen, relative to his reported intention to request the university of that city to waive its claim to the first examination of his North Pole records. Cook said a wrong impression had been received in Denmark as to just what he had said in Washington last night on this subject.

"I shall adhere to my original arrangement to have the University of Copenhagen make the first examination of my records," Cook declared. "But I would ask that university to withhold the announcement of the result of such observations until the records have been examined by all the geographical societies in the world, so that their verdict may be announced simultaneously."

ALLEGED BALL GAME

Mina's ball team appeared Sunday as per schedule, for a game with Bishop. The afternoon was gusty and dusty; still a fairly large crowd gathered to watch a remarkably poor game. Bishop won, 21 to 6. The home team had so easy a walk-over that its careless playing started many of its friends rooting for Mina, in order to get the boys to working seriously. Ingram, the Mina shortstop, was retired from the game by a ball which passed through his hands and struck him in the face.

WILL DISTRIBUTE LINCOLN PENNIES TO HIS FRIENDS

J. GRANT CRUMLEY RECEIVES
500 OF THE NEW COINS
YESTERDAY

J. Grant Crumley, of the Nevada club, yesterday received a shipment of 500 new Lincoln pennies from the sub-treasury at San Francisco. These coins he will distribute to his numerous friends.

The coins are somewhat unique. On one side appears the bas-relief of Lincoln's profile surmounted by the "In God We Trust." At the left of the figure appears the word "Liberty," while the date, 1909, is to the right.

The reverse side contains the words "E Pluribus Unum," and "United States of America." The lettering is surrounded by a wreath.

This issue of pennies is somewhat limited owing to the government having issued an order to cease coining them.

GOLDFIELD TEAM IS NOT ANXIOUS TO DRILL AGAIN

William Ross, who competed in the drilling contest at Goldfield last Saturday with his partner, A. Jones, came over from Goldfield yesterday. Ross is desirous of drilling the winners of the contest, Burns and Julek, for a side bet of $2500, and issued a challenge to that effect. The Goldfield team has shown a desire to "dog it" and has not responded to the challenge.

Ross stated last evening that he and his partner could walk away from the Goldfield team, and would have captured the first prize in the contest but for the breaking of a drill. He also charges that his time was reduced about six seconds by the timekeepers, who were taking no chances on allowing the money to go to an outside team. He will remain here several days before departing for Luckyboy.

STATE LEAGUE OF CALIFORNIA ENTERS FOLD

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The California state baseball league today came into the fold of organized baseball when Frank A. Herman, representing the directors, signed articles with Cal Ewing of the Pacific Coast league, who states that the league becomes affiliated with the national organization with a class "B" rating. According to the plans the reorganized state league includes San Francisco, Stockton, Oakland, Sacramento, Fresno and one other city yet to be represented, for the next year.

The state league closed its season yesterday as a result of the new arrangement and the post-season series between Stockton, the winner of the first half of the season, and Oakland, winner of the second, will open at Oakland Saturday and will be decided by a series of games.

SUES TO RECOVER
